This is a xerox of an enlargement of the shirt collar FBI picture I got from Kleindiest. I've marked the extremities of the slits instead so you can see they not only do not coinside- the side toward the nurse is longer. The other one has a pronounced curve, not possibly from a bullet of only a tiny bit more than 1/4 inch in diameter. This enlargement eliminates the FBI identification in the middle above what is shown here.